

Andre' Jerrell Taylor

February 3, 1986 - October 29, 2022

Obituary

Andre' J. Taylor, affectionately known as "Dre", answered God's call on Saturday October 29, 2022.

Dre' was born on February 3, 1986, in Silver Spring, Maryland to Nathan and Rene' Taylor. Dre' was preceded in death by his grandparents, Elizabeth Taylor, Charles and Clara Weedon, uncles Irving Warner and David Weedon. Andre' spent his early years in Calverton, Maryland with his parents, sister Morgan, and a host of cousins. It was in his Calverton townhome complex where he met his lifelong best friend, Ryan Young. Over the years Dre' was the epitome of diversity and inclusion, it does not matter what walk of life you came from with Dre' you were always welcomed.

Dre' graduated from Laurel High School in 2004 and went on to entering the Hospitality Industry. As Dre' came to adulthood, he used his humorous demeanor and charismatic charm to become a top bartender/server across several restaurants and bars. He worked at Red Lobster, Champpps, Outback, BJ's, Seasons 52, and Dive Bar, just to name a few. Dre' was well known for making the best cocktails and providing top tier services. It was his career in hospitality, where he continued to meet some of the best friends of his life and became a well-known staple in the local restaurant industry. When Dre' wasn't working, he was spending quality time with his children, family, and friends. Whether he was laughing or enjoying a meal, it was always a good time. He was famous for cooking his scrambled eggs, chicken alfredo, and his kids' favorite "oodles and noodles".

Andre' is survived by his children Jady Taylor (15) (Monique), Avery Taylor (9) (Shannon), and Alyssa Matthews (8) (Devon); Parents Nathan and Rene' Taylor; sister Morgan Taylor; grandfather, Albert Taylor, uncles Charles (Lisa), Ronald, and Rick Weedon; aunt Vickie Weedon; significant other Taylor Payne and a host of family and friends.

While we are sad to see you leave us so soon, we know you are only a laugh and shot of fireball away.
