“ Choumsy Chanthalacksa passed away peacefully on October 14, 2024 surrounded by love at the age of 78.

Her faith is defined in the trust and practice of the Buddha's teaching. Choumsy was a devoted mother, grandmother, and great grandmother. She loved her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren deeply. Her hobbies included gardening, knitting, Thai dramas, and listening to Buddhist mantras. She had a large heart both for her family and for all living beings on earth, plants and animals, except for weeds.

Her husband Noukenh Chanthalacksa awaits her in death.

She is survived by four daughters, nine grandchildren, and many great grandchildren.
