“ In loving memory of Daljit Mamaji
He was a man with a golden heart, great humor, and deep love for his family. His presence brought warmth into every room, and his absence will be felt deeply. Though he’s no longer with us in person, the memories and the love he gave will stay with us forever.

We were blessed to visit him two years ago, and he made that time incredibly special for us—full of warmth, love, and unforgettable hospitality. That visit now feels even more precious.

And just last year, we were all together celebrating his 80th birthday. It was such a joyful gathering, surrounded by family, laughter, and love. Looking back, we’re so grateful for those moments. They are a true reflection of the wonderful person he was and the deep bond he shared with all of us.”

May he rest in peace, and may we honor him by living with the same kindness and grace he showed all of us.

“ In Loving Memory of Daljit

I was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of my dear school friend, Daljit. We grew up together in Nairobi, chasing hockey balls across dusty fields and sharing both victories and laughter. His energy on the pitch was matched only by his warmth off it—a teammate, a classmate, and always a steady friend.

Daljit wasn't just skilled with a hockey stick; he was generous, grounded, and full of quiet strength. I'll always remember the long walks home after practice, our easy banter, and the way he made even the toughest games feel like adventures. Those memories remain etched in my heart.

His passing leaves a space that can't be filled, but I find comfort in the shared memories and in knowing that he touched many lives with kindness and grace. My thoughts are with his family and loved ones during this time.

Rest in peace, Daljit. You will be missed, but never forgotten.

“ He was a very good friend from childhood and he will be missed greatly. Although we lived in different parts of the world, he still remained a good friend. I will always remember him as a happy and jolly person. My deepest condolences to the whole family. May Whaeguruji give strength to the family through this difficult time x

“ I feel so fortunate to have spent time with my uncle last year. During my visits, he and my aunt shared their life stories with me, filled with gratitude, love, and the sense of peace that comes from a life well lived.

My uncle spoke of his active life, his involvement with others, and the joy he found in community and at his golf club. He and my aunt were happy, content, and deeply settled, retired and truly enjoying their days together.

I'm so lucky to have been in their presence, to have been welcomed into their home with such warmth throughout my life, and to have shared in those beautiful moments of connection. It is an honour to be family.

May his soul rest in peace, and may the memories of his presence bring comfort to all who loved him.
