“ My deepest sympathy to the Fowler family. I was so sadden to hear of Dallas passing. I thank God for my Sister Mary introducing me to my Brother in Christ 7 years ago. It was such a blessing to have a friend who treated me with so much love. Dallas has prayed for me and always had such encouraging words all the time. He will be missed greatly. Thank God for wonderful memories.

“ Sending my heartfelt condolences and prayers to the Dallas Fowler family. Dallas and I worked together at HUD for a good many years and was also my supervisor. We shared many laughs and good times working in Human Resources which was loads of fun. Dallas always had a smile and was a good friend. May you rest in God's Heavenly Paradise and continued blessings to the family. Always,

“ I'm extending my heart felt sympathy and deepest condolences to each of Dallas's family members for his transistion. Dallas fought the good fight, and he was faithful to God's Word. He and I loved praying together and studying scriptures. I'll miss the many happy years that we had to spend with each other. May he rest in peace, no longer feeing any pain or suffering. Love Always, Mary
