“ Remember, O my friends! The laws, the rights,
The generous plan of power delivered down,
From age to age, by our renowned forefathers,
So dearly bought, the price of so much blood:
Oh! Let it never perish in your hands,
But piously transmit it to you children,
Do thou, great Liberty! Inspire our souls,
And make our lives in thy possession happy,
Or our death glorious in thy just defense.

This prayer from the old English play, “Death of Senator Cato”, it reminds me of what Dwight Hyman is about. I got to know Dwight only in his senior years. I know he was a US army veteran and was a Pusan perimeter survivor from Korea. He did have his struggles both personal and socially in life, some more than others. Despite those setbacks, he prevailed. It was not until his final years I found out that he was a person that cared about his community, by becoming an Election Judge in Prince George's County, Maryland. I worked with Dwight and Sondra Hyman in past elections until they had to pass the torch on to the next generation. Dwight was a heck of a Election Judge and was a joy to work with. He was professional and educated me as he did others. I will miss my friend and wish these words of comfort to his family. He will not be forgotten.
