“ Alan Cash, your untimely death has really shaken me! We spoke several months ago about our hopes to catch up and reconnect. We had such a good time growing up, because you love to laugh and enjoy the company of who you are with. You made me feel special and appreciated whenever I was in your company. Thanks for sharing your life with us. Rest in peace now. Till we meet again.

“ We were shocked by your passing a day after calling Australia to talk to your uncle Nat. Elikem, we have very fond memories of you with us in Accra in 1983/84. Rest well and God be with you. Nat, Kerrie and the rest of the Dzadey family in Australia.
