*“ Oh Fredua, nothing prepared me for your passing. Having reconnected and continued chatting as if I was still in Kingsley and you in Gberg. We talked about everything and anything. You were truly my buddy. Thrn family as William is married to my 2nd cousin.
You will be missed by all of us. May your gentle soul rest in perfect peace. From Asabus*

Gone Too Soon

It is with heavy hearts that we say goodbye to our brother Frederick Fredua Ampofo, a pillar of our Morning Star Preparatory International School's 1974 ("MS 74") graduating class. You should still be here, Fredua. We were not ready to say goodbye - not even close. Your absence is sudden, and it cuts deep. One moment, you were with us, keeping us all abreast of new developments at home and abroad. Then suddenly, a deafening silence.

You brought humor and insight to our days. You were a font of knowledge and information, from your perspectives on politics to your historical narratives. Your tireless spirit, deep-rooted cultural values and appreciation for tradition were inspiring and made us feel proud to be Ghanaians, no matter where we were.

Your absence is felt in our hearts and in every MS 74 debate that is now missing your voice. It is hard to think about moving forward without you, but we will carry your memory in the way we cherish each other as we grieve your departure from this world and chart a post-Fredua course, moving forward. You left far too soon but the impact you made in your time with us will last forever. You will be deeply missed but never forgotten and you will always be part of our story.
