

Gregory J. Carroll Jr.

January 11, 1995 - October 13, 2022

GREGORY JAMES CARROLL JR., the son of Ericka Renea Harris and the late Gregory James Carroll Sr., was born on January 11, 1995. Gregory gained his heavenly wings on October 13, 2022. Gregory was educated in the Baltimore County Public School System. Gregory was baptized at St. Ambrose Catholic Church at a very young age and grew to know the power of God and prayer. “Lil Greg” or “Bump”, as he was affectionately called by his family, was loved beyond measure by all who knew him. His mother, Ericka, had a special bond with her firstborn. Bump frequently said his mom would always be his First Lady. Likewise, his father, Gregory, was especially proud of his namesake and has been patiently awaiting his son’s arrival in Heaven for nine months. Lil Gregory was the apple of his grandparents’ eyes. There was nothing that Pop Pop Elijah and MaMa Squeakie would not do for him. From day one, Gregory had them wrapped around his fingers, especially his Pops. Gregory loved to play video games and had an ongoing rivalry with his little brother, Mekhi about who was the best at 2K. Whenever they were together, it was ON! Gregory had the gift of gab and could converse with anyone on any topic. Gregory was an outstanding employee who knew the different facets of his job as an Inventory Specialist. His latest employment was at Chase Brexton Health Services. We truly thank God for these 27 years that He allowed us to love Gregory. Although our hearts are broken, we know Gregory is free from worry and safe in the arms of our Savior. Gregory was preceded in death by his father, Gregory James Carroll, Sr. and maternal grandparents, Carolyn Cooper and Cornell Harris. Gregory leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Ericka Harris and stepfather Ramon Franklin Sr.; brother, Mekhi Franklin; his paternal grandparents, Bertha Carroll-Prince and Elijah Prince; stepbrother, Ramon Franklin Jr. and stepsisters, Stephanie Franklin, Kiera Franklin and Briyona Franklin; two uncles, Michael Ingram and Rodney Carroll; aunt, DeShawn Carroll; godparents, Danielle and Shawn Robinson; special cousins, Rhonae Carroll, Monique Johnson, Rikki Jefferson, Dez Carroll, Chanel Stamper DaBria Carroll and Shadaya Cox; and a host of loving aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ A couple of my fondest memories of Gregory were: 1.) He was getting on Ericka's nerves one day and she shook her head saying "Lord, give me strength!" Gregory comes right back saying: "No Lord, don't give her shrimp! Give me shrimp!!" and 2.) While working at UMMC, a young man came to our unit at least 3 times per week. When I saw him, there was something VERY familiar about him but I could not put my finger on where I knew him from, because when I knew him, he was much younger. I saw him again, but was close enough to him this time to ask him what his mother's name was. When he said "Ericka!" I grabbed him and hugged him (still could not recall his name) and he said he remembered me from when I worked with his Mom. I had to ask his name and he told me: Gregory! I remembered: "Bump!!" His Mom's co-workers were his surrogate aunts and uncles; we watched him grow up...this is a tough one, but the best part is: God has him, now. We do not have to worry if he is OK, because he is. We will never get over him, we will just learn to live this life without him. Ericka, I love you and I am praying for you and your family.

“ My sincere condolences to Ericka, Ramon, Mekhi, Mrs. Squeakie, Mr. Elijah, and rest of their family on this loss! I watched Gregory grow up and I and my Supplemental Staff co-workers were his surrogate aunts and uncles! Always sharply dressed with a beyond-his-years conversation was what I remember most about him. I pray I could take some of the pain Ericka is feeling now and will feel going forward. My prayers are with all of you!

*Love,
Pamela W.*
