“ My name is Kyana(chicken back as Paulette would say) and I want to share a memory of my aunt.. Aunty Paulette(sister P) was a joyful person, we used to play around the house all the time especially when I did something wrong , there was this one big spoon she would hit me with laugh out loud. I would run all over the place to try to get away from her.

My name is Brandi(mash mouth). My aunt was a selfless person ,I remember there was a time she went with me to New York, it was winter time and we had forgotten our gloves. I was pulling my suitcase but it was really cold so it felt like my hands were freezing, she saw me faltering and asked what was the matter I told her I couldn't feel my hand and she took the suitcase from me and pulled it and I tell you she did not in have on any gloves either.

My name is Cadeen (cadwa). My aunt Paulette always made sure we were okay when we visited despite her challenges, her home was the safe house for me and my daughters. We were apart of her peace, she would often say we took her mind off things and give her happiness. She was more than a mother to me. I miss her smile that smile that special smile.

We miss her!!!!!!!!!!!!our loveable

“ Aunty Paulette. I will miss you dearly. Remember you being with me when Mommy passed. Taking me to sort out school transfer. All the holidays I spent with you. Looked forward to your visits while I was in St. Elizabeth.

Your house was open to me when I left my job, went to the US, came back to Jamaica and my first job offer was in Negril.

Will miss your kindness, your spirit and just how you cared for us.

Sleep well Aunty Paulette. You will remain in our hearts forever.

Niece, Cletan Marriott

Yours 😊 Cleto
