“ To my family Aunt Sophia, Andrea, and Jr with Heavy heart my family and I send you our condolences. We love y'all so much and if we can do anything for you please let us know.

To my beloved uncle, I can't express enough how much I love you and will miss you.. I know I haven't been the best at reaching out and for that I am sorry... Instead of sitting here now telling you how much I love you, I should've been saying these words while you were here. please forgive me for not finding the time just to tell u I love you....but I have no doubt in my mind that you know that and that you loved me too. With a heavy heart I'm thankful you are now with God and that you are at peace and in no pain.. I remember the last phone call I had with you, you met my son who was EMT personnel and you found out he was your great nephew.. oh how he talked about transporting you and seeing aunt Sophia... isn't it ironic that your going to be buried on his birthday and that you left this World on my dad's your brothers birthday 😞..... From now on these days will forever be marked as bittersweet for us... But God is awesome in every way and I thank him for all that he has done and is doing..... I know I'll see you in the next life but until then I'll continue to hold your memories close to my heart and never forgetting all you have taught... Knowing God has your spirit in his hands and that your safe and sound.. Thank you for being a blessing in my life I love you.

“ I remember as a little girl we lived on 308 F St. NW. in Washington DC and every Friday just about uncle James and aunt Sophie and aunt Alma and uncle Robert and sometimes Aunt Eula and uncle Charlie would come over to the house and they would be in the living room just dancing and uncle James and Daddy would dance like James Brown off a song called Papa’s got a brand new bag and they would do the mashed potatoes and also Aunt Sophie would be doing a dance called the push and I can see them in my head doing those sixty dances.and and I used to copy them when they left I remember my daddy looking so good so handsome with a process in his head but he could dress they never knew that I was watching but at the same time I was mimicking the dances that they were doing and today I can do them dances and I can see in my head my Aunt Alma, Aunt Sophie uncle James and Daddy in the living room drinking a beer called black label and when everyone left whatever was in the can I finished it off and momma and daddy never knew it, it was so good. I’m so blessed to have had my Uncle in my life, I also remember when we lived in Laurel and Uncle James and Daddy would come in the summer to pick up me or Quin to babysit Jr and Drea and that’s how they became our babies and still are our babies. Uncle James gone to soon... Love you your niece Tee!
