

Lalit Raythattha

June 14, 1952 - March 1, 2026

Lalit B. Raythattha, 73, passed away peacefully on March 1, 2026.

Born June 14, 1952, in Nadiad, Gujarat, India, he earned Master of Science degrees in Chemical and Environmental Engineering and was a lifelong educator and learner, later embracing Computer Programming.

Lalit was a devoted husband to Kalpana for 46 years and a loving father to daughters, Mital and Hetal. He cherished his role as Nana to his grandchildren, Jaden, Kai, and Avery. He is also survived by his mother, Ben, and his five siblings: Niruben, Praful, Narendra, Dilip, and Kirit.

A man of Hindu faith, Lalit lived with humility, integrity, and quiet strength. An engineer at heart, he believed in understanding how things worked. This curiosity extended beyond science to his hobbies, which included astrology and magic.

Lalit will be remembered for his steady presence, quiet wisdom, and the unconditional love he gave so freely to his family. Those closest to him will miss his quirky sense of humor, his wryness, his knowing smile, and the sense of wonder he brought to the world around him. He had a unique way of appreciating nature — a sunset, a stretch of water, birds in the yard — with genuine amazement, as if seeing it for the first time.

He will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever held in our hearts.
