“ I met MJ through my daughter. They met at Wheaton Mall and became fast friends. MJ was the only friend my daughter had who frequented our home. She was loving, kind and very respectful. She knew the rules of our house and ensured that it was followed even when I was absent. We are still in shock over her passing. We were supposed to have her over to see the new place and have one of their cooking sessions. If we are feeling her loss so deeply, we can't even imagine what her mom and family feels. Please know that we share your loss. You raised a phenomenal young woman and she loved you deeply. She was a great blessing to us and a dear friend to Ashelle. We are so grateful to God that he permitted us to share her train seat as she journeyed this life. We enjoyed the ride MJ. Thank you Girlie for all you did to enrich Ashelle and in so doing you enriched me. May your soul find rest in the Savior ' s embrace. Love Ashelle and Mama Elisia

“ Meeting Marquiete was the best thing that happened to me. Losing her is the worst thing that has happened to me. She was so sweet and caring. She was my best friend. Talking to her everyday for the last 7 years, waking up to her beautiful face and smile for the last 6 years will always be with me for the rest of my life. We always talked about how we would grow old together no matter what. All the places we wanted to go. When I go to those I know that u will be looking down on me. Hopefully one day ill get to see you again. I will love you forever. RIP Honey bun ❤️❤️❤️

“ So sorry for your families loss. Sometimes we just don't know what God's plan is. I learned she had a beautiful soul and spirit and in these strange times much help is needed everywhere, even in God's house. I will continue to keep the family in my prayers. 🙏🙏

“ I have been blessed to watch this beautiful queen grow up to be a responsible, intelligent Young woman. This is the only time I can honestly admit my baby wasn't a baby anymore. I had a birthday celebration back in May and she arrived before her mom. I kept asking her where is your mother! She replied “she is running late, short people are always late” 😭😭 I'm going to truly miss this beautiful soul. Sending love, hugs and blessings to the family. I love you guys 💜💜
