“ So very sorry to hear that Miguel passed. What a great all-around guy. He's helped me with too many projects to count, on my house and my kids houses. I'd trust him with anything and he always came through. I feel lucky to have known him and send love to his family.

“ The three of us, Heather, Missy & Joe, were lucky to work with Miguel and his team for 12 years on over 38 projects when our clients chose Miguel to oversee their renovations. For Miguel, there was no job too big and no job too small. He was willing to add a bathroom to an old home, or tear the roof off and add a third story. Being able to work on both big and small projects is a big achievement, because each requires different and remarkable skills. Most contractors simply don't have these skills. Miguel did. And it should be mentioned, that no matter the size of the project, he treated our mutual clients like their project was the most important project to him. He was thoughtful in his approach to the work we did together, and was always willing to both teach us and learn from us, And Miguel always had a smile, he had patience, and he was such a good listener when his clients simply needed to be heard.

38 projects over 12 years This includes kitchens where parents make meals for their families, bedrooms where parents read to their kids, living rooms where grandparents sit and hold their grandkids, and maybe most importantly, bathrooms where teenagers no longer fight over the sink. Missy, Heather and I want everyone to know that Miguel brought joy to so many people with his work. That joy will continue because the places that he helped make will be around for many, many years into the future. We were introduced to Miguel by a mutual client and our working relationship helped each of our companies to grow at the same time. The growth was slow but certain. We made some amazing things together, and our company will never be quite the same without Miguel as our collaborator. He will be greatly missed.

“ Dios me dio la oportunidad de haber conocido al mejor padre del mundo, un hombre ejemplar luchador que nunca se dio por vencido que siempre dio lo mejor para su familia. Gracias Miguel Pérez por todo lo que hizo por su nieta y por mi las palabras no me alcanzan para expresar todo mi amor... papito deja un vacío inmenso en mi corazón y no se imagina cuánto duele su partida ya no pude abrazarlo ya no pude cuidarlo ni decirle por última vez cuánto lo amaba y decirle gracias papito.... Lo bueno que usted lo sabía usted sabía que si me tocaba dar mi vida por usted yo lo haría.... Queda el consuelo y la esperanza que un día nos encontraremos nuevamente y para siempre y que ya no está sufriendo... solo es un hasta pronto mi viejito muy pronto nos reuniremos nuevamente Dios así lo quiso llevárselo a descansar y esa fue su voluntad. Lo amaremos eternamente abrazos y besos al cielo mi ángel por siempre y para siempre...

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Miguel renovated our house - his last project before his stroke I think. I really enjoyed getting to know him and working with him. He was quick to smile, was such a nice person, and was so good at his job. He had a gift for talking to people. My condolences. Sincerely, Elizabeth Kaehler and family

“ My dear uncle, thank you for everything. Your love extends beyond our lifetime. Te extrañaremos mucho.

Thank you for caring for so many as if we were your own. You surely left a mark on this earth, and I will carry the love you radiated for the rest of my life.
