“ Melina was a beautiful and very special person who touched our lives and we will remember always. Our deepest condolences to Melina's family. She cut my son Caleb's hair for 4-years and introduced us to the "fohawk" hair style he wears today at 16 and shared videos of her talented daughter singing. She was an important part of our lives. . .which is why we drove from Damascus to Kensington to visit her. The last time was September 6, during which she said, in life one of her goals was that "She didn't want to hurt anyone." To the contrary, her spirited and animated personality goes into who my son and I are as people and a small part of her we will channel because she impacted us greatly and was an important in my Son's life. Sincerely, Mark and Caleb.
