“ Dear the family of Neha, I am so very sorry for your loss. I don't know what happened, but I am grieving for you and with you. I was friends with Neha in college in Chicago. We spent a lot of time talking and going out to dinner during our last years in school there. In college, Neha was very imaginative and social, and she was a lot of fun to be with. I kept in touch with Neha and Ed after I moved home to Indiana, and Ed stayed with me for a couple of days when he was doing research at UC Berkeley years later. We later lost touch, and it's only today that I learned of Neha's passing. I feel very sad about this news. I don't know how to contact Neha's family to express my condolences, so I am posting here. I wish I could send a personal card to show my concern and sadness. I feel fortunate that I met and was able to spend time with Neha.

“ Our thoughts and prayers extend to all of you who are faced with the displeasure of losing a loved one to our worst enemy called Death, in these critical situations it's normal to feel helpless not knowing where to turn. However, our heavenly creator has assured us in HEB: 6/11 that it is impossible for him to ever forget us, and a promise that all of those that are worthy will soon have the privilege of living again on a paradise earth. according to PSALMS:37/29. Meanwhile we can give our thanks to the March family funeral directors: for their perfectional assistance and their heartfelt concern toward the unfortunate friends and families. THANKS!
