“ While I did not know Nirmala directly, I have known her most honorable son, Atul, who I consider a dear and close friend & colleague. By knowing the kindness and selfless nature of Atul, I feel as though I know the kindness and joy that his mother, Nirmala, brought to those who knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family... the world has lost a beautiful human being, but we shall remember her in our hearts forever. -John Beyers

तुम्हारी नानी की निधन पर पर हम लोगों कि सच्ची संवेदना । तुम हमेशा अपनेदिल और आत्मा में उसकी उपस्थिति महसूस करो! हमलोगों को इस बात का दुख है कि अब वो नहीं रही- भगवान उनकी दिव्य आत्मा को शांति दें! तुम्हारी नानी ने एक शानदार जीवन जिया है, उनका जीवन हमलोगों बहुत कुछ सिखाता है! तुम्हारी नानी ने हमेशा सबकी निस्वार्थभाव से देखभाल की। वो मालकिन थी - एक खूबसूरत आत्मा, प्यार और विश्वास की, जो हमलोगों से दूर, अब स्वर्ग में चली गई, लेकिन भगवान के करीब- अकेलापन और उदासी छोड़कर! वो हमलोगोंके यादों में हमेशा ज़िंदा रहेंगी! प्रभु से प्रार्थना है कि इस कठिन समयमें आपलोगों को शक्ति प्रदान करें, ईश्वर आपकी नानी को स्वर्गदूतों केबीच विश्राम दे ! वह हमेशा स्वर्ग से सबलोगों पर नजर रखेंगी!

जब अपने चले जाते हैं तो दुःख होता है, मगर सच यह भी है कि शरीर नश्वर है ... हमें यही प्रार्थना करनी चाहिए कि जो जीवात्मा आज हमारे बीच नहीं हैं - प्रभु उसे मोक्ष प्रदान करें ।

“ I will never forget visiting Amma shortly after getting married. I know a lot of people were happy to see me finally reach the point of marriage. But there was something very different about her interaction with me compared to others. She didn't say very much, but as I was leaving and gave her a hug, she put some money in my hand. She was actually giving me her blessing and best wishes. I also saw in her smile and her eyes that there was no judgment, just happiness for me. I brought three beautiful frames as my gift from her before I went home. I think about that moment every time I look at those frames. I wish I had told her how much that moment still means to me. I wish there were more like her.

This was a beautiful service. Thank you for making it possible to watch, and to allow me to thank her and wish her eternal peace. My love to all in the family. Harpinder x “ Nani Ji was the brightest and the sharpest lady in her generation.

We very fondly referred her to as the Google Nani Ji, who knew each and every subject and the latest happenings around the world.
An encyclopedia in herself, she has left a huge vacuum which shall never be filled.

Infact one instance, I cannot forget. Once we were visiting her at Vipul Mama Ji's home in Delhi, while we were sitting in the living room and were having some discussion she suddenly fell down from the chair she was sitting on and fainted. Since Vipul Mama and Madhu Mami Ji were at home, she was immediately given the medical help. Once she gained the consciousness, she was not worried about her ill health but she started asking the domestic help “Arey Rajeev ko kuchh diya hai”. I was amazed at her selflessness and her motherly heart, she was an angel.

We are going to miss her forever, but we hope that wherever she is, she continues to bless all of us as she had been doing throughout her life.

Rest In Peace Nani Ji 🙏🙏🙏

“ Writing about Amma for me is not easy, yet, important!

Amma word is used for a mother who offer unconditional love. My Amma loved everyone who came into her contact unconditionally. My wife, Mahima and I received her blessings and words of wisdom every time we sat with her. She explained complex situations of life in a much simpler way.

Whether we visited the home in Allahabad or in Maryland, Amma made sure that I don't leave home without eating properly. She was Annapurna (a goddess of tasty nourishments). She would explain how a particular dish is cooked perfectly with every fine detail.

Amma had one of the most caring smiles and calm presence – we always felt at peace with her.

I always thought of Amma as a Devi – one who has power to guide when someone asked for guidance; provide meal when someone hungry and grant strength when someone is feeling weak. Today, Amma became one with our creator and we are sure that the heaven is a better place because my Amma is there but it is also my belief that her care for me and for her family is ever present on this earth!

We know that our lives were better because of you, Amma!

Our pranam to you, Amma – I feel you saying khoob prasann raho, khoob Ashirwad, but alas I will not hear those blessings from her, in person, again in this life!

“ From Lorna Fernandes : IN Gratitude to the Life of Nirmala Roy!
.....when I got the news of Nirmala passing away, followed by an empty bed ( which Zeyaan showed us after her passing on video call), and her photo on the table with flowers, my heart missed a beat! My mind travelled through the years that I was associated with her from 2008 till 31st October 2022.

My first meeting with her was in 2008 ( forgot the date n month) when Lionel and I were invited to Atul's house for dinner on Nirmalas prompting. Varnika our now daughter in law was her granddaughter and she was just beginning to get friendly with my second son Rohan. They were both doing PhD together in College Park MD.

It was an instant connection! It was a lovely North Indian meal prepared with much love by Nirmala and her daughter in law Bharti. The connect, the chat, the food was so easy going and cool with none of the small talk or superficialities. When I went home and reflected I found a great soul in Nirmala, a conservative Hindu who had accepted us a Christian (Catholic) couple, with no barriers. She was open minded and inclusive with a warm sense of friendship. It was a moment to cherish.

She was ready for anything especially fun and celebrations. She was always the central figure who walked in gracefully and silently exuding peace and serenity. She spoke little but was a huge presence who enjoyed and participated in all activities silently and with a smile. She made no demands. Whether people spoke to her or not she attracted attention by her mere peaceful and endearing presence! Often Atul would take her to the doctor and on his way back they would drop in at Rohan's during the day as we Lionel n I would be alone while the rest were at work. There was no need for big conversations. Her nonverbal positive attitude conveyed all the good vibes and concerns.

She would make her famous Srikhand and puris, whenever we went to Atul's. She was tall and regal in a sense she did not need much makeup to attract attention. She was beautiful as she was fully self assure that we could tell from her gait. She was much loved by family, friends alike and especially my family they loved her as their own grandmother and visited her whenever they came down. In fact we all met at Atul's place for Rakhi this year in August.

I had many opportunities to interact with her as a friend. I remember cutting her hair once and she was quietly enjoying every minute of what I was doing to her hair. Infact I had cut it so short that I thought that she would not like it. But alas she was so thankful for that small insignificant act of mine that she never forgot to mention it. She would sit and knit sweaters for my grandchildren Zeyaan, Ellis n Neev, even when her fingers were painful and swollen. There was a glint in her eyes whenever we met that I really cherish. That look said it all that she was happy to meet us.

If Varnika was sick she would come to take care of her even while she was on a walker. She was totally uncaring of her own pain when it came to care for her loved ones. Lionel and I got a chance to spend a weekend with her alone when Atul n family had gone for a wedding to Mexico. Atul was very worried and asked to call him in case of emergency.

She was supposed to ring the bell as we were sleeping away from where she was. She let us sleep soundly and never woke us up even once. In fact the next day she got up made tea and rotis for us. In later years when her health further deteriorated all she did was smile and show appreciation for our visit and always came out and sat with us in silence but be very much part of the gathering. What did I learn from Nirmala in all these years was her strength of character.

She had the capacity to set aside her suffering and live life to the fullest even in her most difficult moments. She let others take over the show while she endured silently, every bit of Life in good as well as not so good times with equanimity.

Every encounter with her was a celebration of Life! Every moment was precious. She showed us that we don't need to do great things in life to succeed. Just be yourself and glorify the ONE that created you! I have gained much from Nirmala's life! She was, is, and always will be a beacon of light in my life !

I've asked myself many times will life ever get better for us, Not knowing that in GODS word the bible found in REVELATIONS, 21:4 God promises to wipe away all death and pain from all mankind. This is GODS promise to all of us and like so many others, I' am looking forward to that day. Meanwhile we can give a special thanks to the March family for trying to give us comfort during these hurtful situations.*
