“ Prabodh and Nirmala were sincere, un-assuming , un-judegmental, honorable relatives who covered the entire extended family with their love unconditionally and will be missed forever. May their souls be in eternal bliss. - an appreciation from Eksath and Malkanthi Weerekoon

“ We were shocked to hear the tragic news of passing away of dear Nanni Didi and Prabodh ji and have still not overcome the mood of sadness and gloom.

Both of them were an ideal couple and great human beings - ever caring and giving. We cannot forget how Nanni Didi traveled from Jammu to Delhi on 2 occasions to attend our important occasions - Kahnethar and Arangetram of Gunjan.

We pray to Almighty God to provide strength to Bobbie, Sonu and all near and dear ones to bear this great loss with courage and equanimity.

We are sure that God has kept a special place for them in heaven, close to him.

ॐ शान्ति ॐ

“ Our heartfelt condolences to Vaid Family. It was very heart breaking to watch the Funeral ceremony. Doctor Shaib (as I used to call him) and Nanhi were a simple, loving ,caring ,and above all a happy couple.

They were selfless,always willing to help and care for others .They were real Karmiyogis.

I know of many instances ,where they have opened their home to people, in need ,and that too without a word. I pray for peace to their soul and may Almighty give the family strength to somehow bear this immense loss. OM SHANTI...Sujata qasba

“ We have had a long and wonderful friendship with Nanhi and Prabodh Vaid ji going back to Srinagar days. Prabodh ji was a young colleague of my father's in the Verterinary Department and we heard about his marriage to Nanhi and that's got our families to come close. When after retirement, my parents visited the US to see their children they spent several days as guests of the Vaid's in Cumberland.

They were a most generous couple, full of warmth and genuine care for everyone. Our deepest condolences to the family.

“ I have known Uncle and Aunty since I can remember. They were always very loving and kind people. A specific memory that I always have loved with their family goes back to our time in Cumberland together. During the warm months, I remember Sonu, myself and my little brother swimming at Uncle's boss's house on what seemed like everyday during the summertime. Those were great times and Uncle and Aunty will be missed dearly.

“ Both Massi and Doctor Uncle were truly loving and caring with a big heart for people. Would always remember them for the warmth they had towards us and everyone around them.

We will miss them a lot, no words can express the pain we feel thinking that they are not there. Just praying that they find peace and the family is able to stay strong and able to deal with this loss.

Sharing some of their pictures we have with them, will always cherish these.

Our prayers
Om Shanti Om!

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family and close relatives. May their soul Rest In Peace. God gave you beta (Amit and Bobby) all close relatives enough strength to bear such immortal loss. It is shocking to express am speechless. Dr. Prabodh Vaid and I, are very closely friends. We went to veterinary college, Mhow together. Prabodh was one year senior to me. Prabodh ji and Nirmala ji were our great friends. We will miss them. Om shanti om.
