As for my loving aunt Sarah, there is no words to express the loss I feel right now. This beautiful woman of God took me under her wings at a very early phase in my life. She loved me in spite of my character flaws, she took the place of my mother, she made sure my Christmas was filled with joy, there was nothing I wanted or needed that she didn't make sure I had. She helped me with my homework, she kept all my accomplishments, she was sure to take many photos of me to remember me by and up until her last days she talked with me, gave me advice, she is responsible for the woman I am today. There is definitely a empty place in my heart right now and my children will miss her dearly as well. "to be absent on earth is to be present with the Lord" this is the only thing that gives me peace with her passing. I love you Auntie and we will dance together again. As for the family, find peace in knowing that she loved us all, and know that God is smiling with her and has already told her, "job well done my faithful child."

“ Aunt Sarah, I'll miss you so much, I remember meeting you in the early 80's. You were welcoming and a beautiful woman and spirit since day one. I'm going to miss picking up the phone calling you. Our relationship will be remembered by me forever. R.I.H.P Auntie until we meet again💔🙏

“ Aunt Sarah will always be remembered as the aunt who loved all of us unconditionally! That Jesus kinda agape love that we all need when we're young and when we're older. God has added a new angel to watch over the family from heaven. We love her and she will be greatly missed.

To our cousins, we love you all...may God continue to bless y'all with his perfect peace.
