“ I will always remember your beauty aesthetically and inside, your pretty dimples. I remember you sitting on my sofa being sleepy and tumbling over and awakening only to start crying and refusing to go to sleep. Your favorite song was Bad Girls, you couldn't wait for part "toot toot, beep beep." I love you my precious cousin. Sleep in Paradise will your mother Crystal, your grandma Rose who called you Nikki Poo and your pretty sister. Until we meet again, sleep in Heavenly peace.

“ We in Pittsburgh send our prayers, Brett, Braxton Cheryl, Lawrence and the entire family and friends of Nikki. We are so blessed that the Banks Family shared Nikki with us. A loving beautiful young woman, mother, wife and we all felt our daughter too! May God give you the strength and know your Pittsburgh family will always keep Nikki in our hearts.

“ There are no words to express the grief and sadness we are experiencing at this time; and, the vividness of the big empty space that has been left in our hearts, souls and lives, that can never, ever, be filled, in this life.

Nikki, you came in to our lives many, many years ago, as a youngster in Delaware, when your Dad, Leon W. Gregory, Jr., lovingly took my daughter Mia and both of his daughters and son, to Hershey Park, PA. to enjoy a "Family Day with Dad."

Later, when we relocated to Virginia Beach, Va. You and your Brother "III" spent lots of "Quality Time" with us, as a Blended Family, and we got to know you personally Nikki-- as a Loving, Beautiful, Intelligent, Dedicated and aspiring "Medical Doctor".

My favorite memory was when we spent "one-on-one" time, alone together, travelling by car, to Register and Enroll you for another Semester at Virginia State; now, Virginia State University.

Your "EXCELLENCE" was reflected in your rare Beauty, Brilliance, Awareness of your own Dignity and Self-Worth; and, your willingness to "SHINE BRIGHT LIKE A DIAMOND" AND YOUR COURAGE TO ALWAYS TELL THE HONEST TRUTH!

Nikki, You became my other daughter and Mia's very special "Big Sister".

Mia's Higher Education and Career Successes were greatly influenced by Your Incredible Sense of Purpose, Determination and Self-Discipline.

We have lost a Family Member, Daughter, Sister and LOVED ONE!

Nikki, "Rest in the Power of the Resurrection (R.I.P.)" with your other Family members who have passed on!

We shall steadfastly hold on to our LOVE for You; and, our Family Memories and Family pictures. A PERSONAL COMMITMENT IS BEING MADE TO ALWAYS "LOVINGLY" LOOK AFTER-- your Brother and your Dad; as faithfully as you did, even after you became a Beloved Wife and Mom yourself!

We prayerfully and earnestly, will be living intentionally, so that GOD will Bless Us to see both you and ALL the Family again in the Resurrection!

LOVE ALWAYS,

*Dr. Martha A. Johnson & (daughter) Mia Mance and Family
Atlanta & Savannah, GA.*
