We will miss you mama!!

Can't forget the long walks and conversations we had at Jodhpur & Washington!!

In this unfortunate year I have lost 2 most loving people from my life. It feels so difficult to not be able to see you again but your memories will last till my last.

Rest in peace!

“ We have been very fortunate to have known and associated with Shantiji and his family since we moved to the DC area (35 years ago). We have always admired his passion for history and technology. He was a teacher without him knowing it. We will miss him.

“ Shanti was a genuine friend; he will be missed so much by so many for so long, I was privileged to call Shanti a friend for several decades. Our relationship was mostly personal; but each of us did take the other's resume to our company, to help in a job search.

When remembering Shanti, the words that spring to mind are "friendly, helpful, genuine." He wore his technical expertise lightly, with no airs.

Among other things, this non-Hindi speaker will fondly remember Shanti's use of the word "Parantu" which was unusual in my circle of friends.

My sincere condolences to Manju, Jyoti, Archana, Swati and the entire family on our shared loss.
