Born on September 20, 1941, in Phagwara, where she grew up with her beloved family before marrying Awtar Singh Floura in 1966. Together they built a life centered around family, kindness, faith, and caring for others.

Surjit Kaur truly lived life with joy. She was always happy, always smiling, and always thinking about the people around her. Her warmth, selflessness, and constant presence brought comfort and connection to so many.

Her faith in Sikhi was at the center of her life and shaped the values she passed on to her family. Through her actions, she taught the importance of
