“ I am so sadden by this. Dr. Jackson was my doctor when I was a little girl, she even seen me as an adult . I don't know what made me google her tonight she just popped up in my head I'm 34 years old now, she was always nice to me I can believe she's no longer here. My condolences to the family. She has done so much for the South East Washington, DC community and will be missed! An excellent physician INDEED!

“ Dr. Jackson it was such a pleasure serving with you on Sundays. You were one my favorite physicians that always had a smile on your face and ready to serve God's people. I miss you dearly. I know that I will see you again in heaven. Love you Sis!

“ My wife and I will always be grateful for Dr. Jackson for her kindness shown towards my daughter as she was just starting her career in medicine journey. Mariah had applied to a over 5 schools and no bites, but during that one conversation with Dr Jackson she shared that Mariah should apply to Meharry Medical College, a school none of us had heard of prior to that conversation. Mariah applied and was accepted, it was actually the only school she was accepted to on the first try. Fast forward, 10 years later, Dr. Mariah has completed all of her schooling and training and is now a Neonatologists and was recently hired by Children's National. Our only regret is that we couldn't share this momentous occasion with her, but we believe she knows how grateful we all are for her willingness to pour into our daughter at that one moment in time. Thank you to Dr Jackson and to the family we are forever in prayer with you. God Bless - Bro & Sis Cheaves and Dr Mariah Cheaves.

“ From the days of our adolescence, Tammy's gentle spirit and warm, welcoming smile left an impression on everyone she met. She carried a quiet strength, always drawn to do what was right, never seeking attention—just living with grace and kindness. There was a special tenderness in how she quietly adored her little sister, a love that spoke louder than words ever could.

Dr. Jackson, may you now rest in peace, reunited with your dear mother, and held in the everlasting arms of your God. Your light remains in the hearts of those who knew you.

“ Tamara was and will always be a beacon of light- one of the brightest lights in the universe. Her absence earth side leaves it dimmer here for sure. I will always remember Tamara's kindness, the love she shared, the smiles she gave and that joyful healing laugh. She represented Christ well. She understood the assignment! I celebrate with all of heaven for her homecoming and pray for comfort for her family and friends.

“ Tammy, farewell for now. I have many fond memories of Roblyn, Nina and myself staying with your mom and Theresa in Baltimore. I loved it when your mom would take us to Carvel in her VW, and there we were introduced to getting chocolate sprinkles on our ice cream. Even today, I still get chocolate sprinkles on my ice cream. You had a beautiful smile and heart too. My love to you, Tammy and may you rest in peace.

“ I once sent this to you as a gift many years ago because it was so on point...”We’ve shared so much laughter, shared so many tears. We’ve a spiritual bond that grows stronger each year. We’re not sisters by birth, but we knew from the start, God put us together to be sisters by heart.” I love and miss you sooo much. But I KNOW that I will see you on the other side! From your med school roommate and “youngest sister”, Lisa. Carolyn and Shayla, love and praying for you...

“ Tammy, I'm just saddened to see you go so soon! I played with you when we were little girls at sleepovers and other events. You went on a few family vacations with my parents, sisters, and me back in the day when we were kids. I watched you complete med school, buy a house and work in your medical profession. You surely accomplished many life goals, but our Dear Lord called you home to rest. Will miss you. Go rest in peace! Love you Cousin Tammy! 🙏

“ Every time I encountered her at church was a time of sharing wisdom, love, and a heart-warming laugh. Her smile automatically made me smile. Truly blessed to have known her. She's home, the Christian's reward. "By HIS stripes, I am healed. Praise the Lord!"- Sis. Sharon D Long (FTHCM)

“ One of my fondest memories of Tammy was when she was a student at UMBC. Her sister, Carolyn and I were still in high school and would go visit Tammy in her dorm. We were the young ones trying to keep up with her. She would just smile and shake her head. Tammy was a sweet, kind and patient person and her light will forever shine. I've always admired the sisterly love between Tammy and Carolyn and they always had one another's backs. Rest Peacefully Tammy, you will always be missed. 🙏

“ I grew up with Tammy and Carolyn, Tammy was her big sister, Tammy was always kind and a sweet person. She was always serious and focused, maybe that's why she got her doctorate. They both looked like their mom who was as equally as sweet. I remember going to their house and hearing the local group the pockets, 😭, but I always have love for Carolyn and Tammy, RIP TAMMY you will never be forgotten ❤️ Zelda
