

Thomas Blackwell

June 19, 1945 - April 12, 2023

Thomas Blackwell was born June 9, 1945, to the late Mattie Lee Holden and William Blackwell in Baltimore, MD. Thomas was called to eternal rest on April 12, 2023. Thomas received his education from Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1963.

Thomas joined the United States Army in August 1963 – August 1969. He served in Vietnam and Korea while in the military. After he left the military, he moved to Connecticut. Thomas later received a Master's degree in Master of Social Work from University of Connecticut in Hartford Connecticut.

He was employed with the State of Maryland as a licensed Social Worker. His last job was Baltimore City Department of Social Services as Supervisor in Resources & Support Unit until he retired in 2011.

Thomas was joined in Holy Matrimony to Alla Kuchik on December 14, 2005. Thomas was a lover of arts. Whenever you saw him, his distinguished fashions were always complementing. He was an avid photographer. He didn't go anywhere without a camera.

He was a collector of African Art, loved gardening, grilling, traveling and playing Chess. Not only did he love the game, he studied it like Sun Tzu. He had many talents and skills that made him personable and accepted in many circles and communities.

Thomas preceded his brother Larry Wayne Blackwell and sister Delores Ann Blackwell in death. He leaves behind his wife: Alla Kuchik - Blackwell; children: Myeisha Blackwell, Kibwe Shelton (Careyna), Beonca Taylor of NYC; Step-Daughter: Katya Kuchik(Artem); (7) grandchildren: Kibwe, Jr., Kahlil, Markia, Mark, Markia, Korey, Karter, Dakota; (3) great grandchildren: Enzo, Mello and Mylan; sister: Madeline Zagoria; Special Friends: Kenny Majinnasola, Doris McCleod and Beatrice Davis; a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends..

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I just saw the obituary for Thomas on Facebook today. He was such a wonderful man and I have many memories of him that I will treasure. He was my first boss when I started as a social worker in Westminster, Maryland, and he made me love my job. I offer my condolences and wishes for lovely memories to bring you peace.
