“ I just found out today about Victor's passing. I worked with him at Swenson's ice cream store almost 38 years ago as a second job in the summer while going to GWU and working at the Joint Bank-Fund library. I told him we had an opening in the department and you never saw a man put on a suit so fast and arrive for an interview! He got the the job and thrived there from then on. I am so proud to have helped him get his start and to have been his friend.

“ My Condolences to the family and friends of Victor which I had the pleasure to meet as he was an active member of the 'World Bank-IMF International Photographic Society'. His precious contributions to the Society were so appreciated. He was always willing to help, did so very gracefully & along with a smile. He was also sharing with us his photographic talent. Victor shall be missed.

“ Dear Bosier Family,
I am so sorry and saddened for your loss. I met Victor 20 years ago when I joined the IMF Finance Department! Victor has always been a beacon of kindness, cheers, and a true artist. A couple years ago, I attended a Georgetown basketball game with my family. Though we were seated a bit far, I was impressed by this professional photographer covering the court from all angles catching players in their best move. It was Victor indeed, and a special gift to witness his focus and joy being part of all the action! Thank you, Victor, for all the years and all the laughs we shared. You have been an outstanding generous kind minded colleague.

Victor is an angel who touched so many of our lives leaving profound joyful memories. We are all blessed to have met him. May your soul rest in peace Victor. I hope all the happy loving memories will give your family peace and comfort during this challenging time.

“ Victor will forever be the most genuine person I know. I saw him as an older brother. He would always share his wisdom and knowledge with no judgement attached. He called me out about driving around with my music blasting but never held it against me. His love for Star Wars had me beat in that category. He broke down the Star Wars so much, I went back and watched every movie in order. He even broke down the spinoffs from the Star Wars stories. His love and protection for my Soror/Sister Tanya and his children was a marvel to watch. With Victor and Tanya in your corner you cannot go wrong. They would build you up and never break you down even when you were wrong. This is a hard one. But, I know Victor would say, look forward, keep your head up, know your boundaries, and have faith it will all work out. He would say do not stress over other folks mess but deal with your own mess. Victor, you will be missed but never forgotten my brother. So when I turn my music up, it is me saying - Hey What's up! ShawnMJ

“ I recall introducing my son Adrian Gororo to Victor when he was 5 years old, just when he had started playing travel basketball. Victor was very loving and supportive that before each game, we would get on a speaker call with Victor, and he would talk to Adrian and calm his nerves. Victor would hype him up, and walkthrough the game, expressing his support and love. He would tell him how well he would do, and also “who care if he misses a few shots, no one is going to remember after the game”. This gave Adrian a lot of confidence and joy for the game, which over the years strengthened his bond with Victor. Their favorite times to catch up were during the NBA/NFL drafts, and of course staying connected during the regular college basketball season. This past summer was special for Adrian, as Victor, Adrian and I went on an afternoon tour of DC, absorbing all the rich history of the city that Victor had to share. We will miss Victor dearly and pray that his Soul rests in Peace.

“ To Victor's family and all the many people who clearly loved him so. There are not enough words to describe the immense loss felt by all. The love we all share for this incredible man is palpable and we are all better for having had him in our lives. I met Victor about 10 years ago at MARS, the annual photography training workshop. We bonded over the love of our photography craft, and also because he is so genuinely awesome.

He is also insanely talented- so much so, that I often asked him to photograph with me at my bar and bat mitzvah events. I always felt so lucky when he told me he was available because he not only caught such treasured moments for my clients, he was just so wonderful to be around. Through our work together, my own family got to know the incredible person that he is.

The most cherished photos he took for me are of my own daughter's high school graduation celebration- he was just perfect and got smiles out of everyone. His beautiful images tell my daughter's story for us and we will cherish them forever.

His loss is still a shock to my system- he added so much joy to my own photography journey and that gift is truly priceless. I will miss him and his beautiful energy very much and will keep the memories of his spirit close by when I continue to photograph.

My heart goes out to Victor's family- he always spoke so lovingly of you all.

“ Dear Bosier family. I am so sorry for your loss. Victor was a very kind person and made a positive impact on many people including my family. I would like to let you know that I will carry Victor in my heart. He has onboarded us as a family to swimming. He was so open to share what it meant to be a parent of a swimmer from how to even spectate to what training was important. I will remember Victor's comment when he said, your child will always have a job if he knows how to swim. Lifeguards are needed everywhere. He followed my son's swimming achievements even after his daughter Taylor stopped swimming.

I worked with Victor at the IMF for many years. He made our workplace a better place. He was also the brains behind our records. I walk by our electronic cabinets every day and think about Victor. He was the one who assisted the Fund with this modernization.

Tanya, Victor, and Taylor, you had a special husband and dad!
I send you a lot of love.

“ Victor was one of my very favorite people to connect with every year at MARS (The Mid-Atlantic Regional School of Photography) He was a genuine, kind, authentic soul who brought joy and happiness to all he met. I was blessed to know Victor for well over a decade and my heart is breaking with this news. The hugs and laughter we exchanged over our love of people and photography is something i will cherish forever. I am so sad to know that I will not be able to share those again BUT through the pictures we have I know his smile and joy lives on in them and they are precious gifts I will cherish forever. Victor will NOT be forgotten and I know I am a better person for having known him.
